

THE TITLEHOLDER. Miss Anne Townsend defeated Miss Helen S. Sewell in first round of women's tennis tourney

WON FIRST AND SECOND MATCH. Miss Florence Ballin, of West Side C. C., Long Island. Miss Molly Thayer was a victim

WATCHING THE MATCHES. The Pennsylvania and Eastern States tennis championship for women is on at the Merion Cricket Club. Some of these players have won, some have been eliminated and others are waiting to play

MEMBER OF ULSTER PARLIAMENT. Mrs. Spencer Chichester, one of two women in that body, is visiting Chicago

ISADORA DUNCAN, the dancer, and her Russian husband. She is now Mrs. Alexander J. Jessenin. Jessenin is a poet

ANTON LANG, who portrays the role of Christ in the Passion Play now being given at Oberammergau, as he appears surrounded by his family at the evening meal. Lang was chosen because of his simple life and kindly virtues

PLAYING HORSE. Miss Danyan acts as "horse" for Miss Dolores on Long Beach, L. I.

SENATOR PEPPER AND HIS GRAND-CHILDREN. They are George Wharton Pepper, 3d, and Heyward Pepper

MABEL DUNAVAN wrote Indiana Governor, urging father's execution for murder of mother

IT'S FINE TO WIN. The happy crew that won the annual canoe race for girls on the St. Charles River. The camera caught them during the river parade that followed the canoe regatta

MISS JULIA PRIDDY, a society belle of Richmond, in Virginia's pageant

"BROAD STREET OUGHT TO BE MUCH WIDER." That's what Traffic Footman Doughty, stationed at Broad and Chestnut streets, said, and he ought to know. Take a peep at Broad street traffic just above Chestnut street

MRS. WILLIAM BLIVEN was met by photographer on the Huntingdon Valley golf course

EVELYN NESBIT, greatly improved in health, is spending some time in Atlantic City. Her Japanese dog is with her

JUDGE LANDIS, the well-known "boss" of organized baseball, is headed for a peck of trouble as he begins a marble battle with Alec Taylor in Chicago

GOING ABROAD. Miss Jane Cowell, actress, passenger on the S. S. Adriatic

MISS E. F. CORNELIUS, of Germantown, in Mt. Holyoke College May-Day exercises

STAGE MENTOR. Bernard M. Baruch, financier, has accepted position offered by American show producers

PARENTS ENTERTAINED. The girls of the Kelley School, Twenty-eighth street and Columbia avenue, gave drills of varied types as the memorial services and exercises were held

MEMORIAL EXERCISES at the Kelley School were attended by veterans of the Civil and World Wars. The children presented an excellent program

DR. ROSS V. PATTERSON talks of the scarcity of physicians in Editorial Page interview

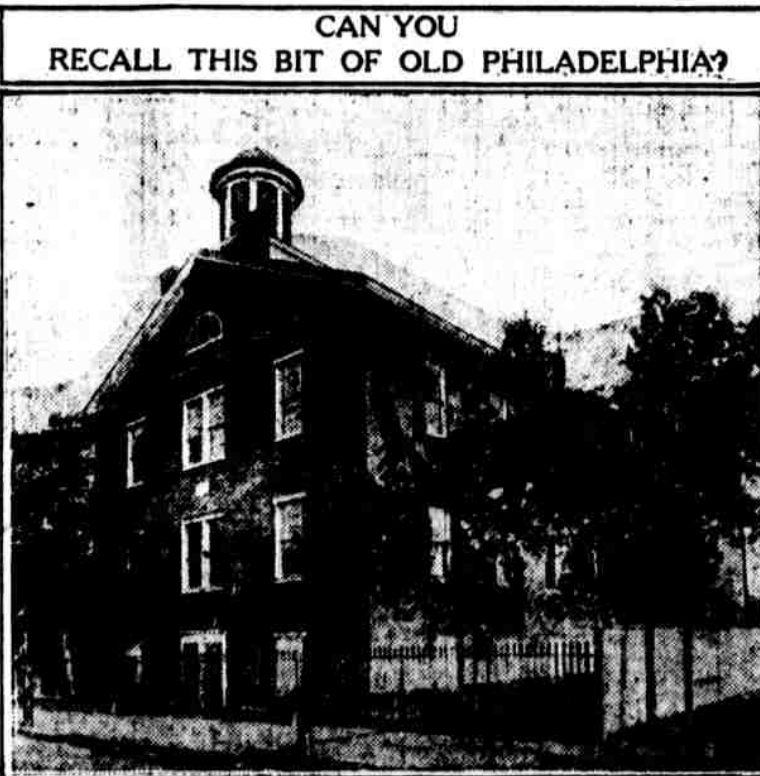

MRS. G. W. McIVER was very busy at Hahnemann Hospital social service lawn fete

THE CHILDREN HAVE "TAXICABS" IN ENGLAND. This toy would attract most American youngsters. It was built by a London craftsman for his children

BANKERS LEAVE BOOKS FOR BASEBALL. The Fidelity Trust team had a diamond argument with Girard National last evening. We show you Stemple, Girard's stag hurler, and Manager Cousley, of Fidelity

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA? The Harrison Public School at the corner of Philip and Master streets as it looked in 1880. It was razed to make way for a freight yard. John Smith, 212 Master street, is contributor

A. B. HOUGHTON, Ambassador to Germany, given great reception in Berlin

NICHOLAS LAYCOCK, P. & R. conductor for 25 years. Has been in the railway's service 40 years

FINISH OF THE ONE-MILE RUN. Shields, of Penn State, the winner, is shown just as the timer's watch clicked at the finish